

Cyber Bullying

What is Cyber Bullying?

Cyber Bullying is when the bully harasses, embarrasses, and hurts people's feelings online on an electronic device. In the latest news, a young adolescent named Piper was cyber bullied. Piper's emotions were hurt and she felt really bad for herself. Her mother was extremely furious with the parents because the kids said "sorry" but didn't mean it. Also their children didn't care that they got expelled.

Consequences For Cyber Bullying:

- If it gets too serious people could commit suicide.
- Kids feel alone and depressed at school.
- Also the victim can harm others.
- The victim can contact the police for safety.

Why is Cyber Bullying more hurtful than regular bullying?

- . It's online.
- . Harasses victims.
- . You can't see the victim's face.
- . There are instant messages

Verses Traditional Bullying.

- . Active with the body.
- . Can see the bully.
- . You can do it socially.
- . Repeated over time.

“When you Cyber Bully, the world turns black and white.”

Words Hurt

How to Stop a Cyber Bully?

One strategy to prevent a Cyber Bully is to STOP, BLOCK, and TELL. What does that mean? STOP means to stop what you are doing and back away from the computer. BLOCK means to block the person and the hurtful messages. TELL means to tell a trusted adult. P.S never share your password.

